TELLING YOUR STORY

Telling your story through looking back at themes and learnings

Review your gift assessment, the landscape of life exercise and the skills, passions, experiences and losses exercise.

How is your story emerging? Are there themes? Are there areas of passion and interest that are becoming clear? Are there skills and experiences that God wants to have you use to help others? How might your spiritual gifts play into these areas of learning as well?

Spend time in quiet and ask the Holy Spirit to lead you... to give understanding to your life of circumstances and experiences... to give understanding to how you have been made uniquely by Him. What are you sensing from the Holy Spirit as you look at the journey of your life so far?

What step can you take to serve in the church that would help others and help you discover who God made you to be at the same time? What might God help clarify as you take a step into serving others in the church?
